

One of 3 finalists

Will Dr. Bedell take Kalamazoo school job?

Will Dr. William Bedell be at the helm of the Romulus Community School District this fall?

That answer may come from Kalamazoo in the next few days.

Bedell is one of three finalists who are being considered to fill the school superintendent's vacancy in Kalamazoo, and the $52,000 position would be a professional advancement for the man who has directed the local school district for the past six years.

Although he didn't seek the Kalamazoo job, Dr. Bedell received an invitation to be interviewed by the Kalamazoo Board of Education. Ten persons were invited and only three, including Dr. Bedell, remain in the running.

The other two candidates are Dr. Jerry Herman, superintendent of the West Bloomfield School District; and Dr. F.E. Rapley, deputy superintendent of the Jefferson County Schools in Louisville, Ky. Dr. Charles Townsend will vocate the Kalamazoo position on July 1. Townsend has been the superintendent of the 13,000-student school district for the past five years. He plans to leave Kalamazoo, but no definite plans were announced.

Van Buren Township Drama Club will present "The Hobbit" on June 2, 3, 4 and 5 at the Belleville High School auditorium, beginning at 7 p.m.

Tickets are available at the door for $2 and $1 for adults and senior citizens, respectively. Children 12 and under also will be admitted for the $1 fare.

"The Hobbit" is directed by James Lightfoot and is sponsored by the Van Buren Parks and Recreation Department.

WSDS Radio will conduct a benefit radiothon to help raise funds for the American Cancer Society this weekend. Located at 1480 on the AM dial, the popular Country Music station will help in its fight against cancer and is asking everyone to join by calling in pledges from 3 p.m. until 8:45 p.m. on Friday; 6 a.m. until 8:45 p.m. on Saturday; 6 a.m. until 8:45 p.m. on Sunday and from 6 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Memorial Day.

Oeddek's Garden Gallery will display the art work of Ray Gross, a teacher in the Van Buren Schools, on June 1 through June 30 at their Mount Clemens based gallery. There is a 9:30 p.m., Friday, June 4 reception with the artist.

"Primarily I have spent my time as a figure painter," Gross said, "however, in the last few years I have turned to landscape. The soft elusive colors of open fields and trees have always intrigued me and I attempt to capture the fleeting, momentary nature of the light effects."

"At times I try to incorporate the nude figure with the landscape. The wood nymph has always held a certain appeal for me, perhaps as a symbol of human mankind's relationship to nature. Above all, I find landscape to be soothing and peaceful - a change from the pressures and demands of everyday life."

In their bid to raise more than $120,000 to support Belleville High sports and athletics for the 1982-83 school year the Belleville High Athletic Booster Club will hold a Spaghetti Supper beginning at 5 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. on Tues., June 1 in the high school cafeteria. The "all-you-can-eat" affair costs $3.50 for adults; $3 for senior citizens; $2.50 for children ages 3 to 12, and for children under 3, the food is free.

Proceeds will be donated to help finance sports.

'Government Day' a huge success

High school students got a taste of what it's like running government last week when the traditional ceremonies for "Government Day" were staged at Romulus City Hall. Students took over for elected officials and, for one day, conducted city business. It was all in conjunction with Michigan Week.

"I want to thank Mayor Oakley, members of council and those involved in the program for making the day so worthwhile for our students," said Ron Hanna, Political Science teacher at Romulus High School.

"Students learn by experiencing and let me say that all of them enjoyed their trip to the City Hall and their rolls as city officials," Hanna concluded.

Students learned also that there are many issues pressing city government. And money won't resolve all of them. Elected officials are not only expected to do their job capably, but also are ambassadors between government and citizens, Hanna offered.

Mayor William M. Oakley greeted the students then yielded his chair and the title - for a day - to student Bill Hawkins. Also taking over the reins of city government were Serina Lloyd who replaced Raymond Cantrell as clerk and Tom Scamp, who took Bev McAnally's job as treasurer.

The "newly installed" City Council included Clarence Collins, who became Mayor Pro Tem in place of Mary Ann Banks, while Robert Bales, Delbert Fowler, Roger Lipponeli, Ann David, Leroy Burroughs and Carolyn Nelson replaced councilpeople Barry Baumann, Alan Lambert, Noah P. Bergerson, Jr. John Lewkowicz, Fred Junior Block, and Jimmie C. Raspberry.

The department heads were: Laura Nichol (Assessor), Mary Cucuzzo (Building Director), Debbie Ruffolo (Ordinance Director), Tammy Paciotti (City Attorney), Portia Arrington (Finance Director), Charlie Peasemeyer (Fire Chief), Robert Springer (Community Development), Jennifer Mitton (Help Center), Robert Springer (Community Development), Linda Kerr (Librarian), Maria Adams (Personnel), Allen Carpenter (Police Chief), Dawn Richards (Public Works) and Debbie Winekoff (Recreation Director).

Forged signatures on DetRo petitions?

If DetRo Recovery officials wanted to impress Romulus City Council and residents with their presentation of petitions signed by 2,000 residents favoring their proposed plant, the move may have backfired as checks of the petitions show that some signatures were forged and others belonged to out-of-towners and teen-agers.

At least two former residents were asked to be placed on last night's City Council agenda to discuss signatures on the petitions. The ex-residents allege that their signatures had been forged and are asking for an investigation.

DetRo presented the petitions to council at the Tues., May 11 meeting. The petitions were submitted to council by James O'Toole, who has the title of Editorial Director of a DetRo backed newsletter, The Town Crier, and also serves as a DetRo spokesperson.

Harry Nelson, an avid supporter of the DetRo plan to construct a sludge-to-fertilizer plant in the city, told council during the May 11 meeting, "that you may not want the plant, but here are 2,000 signatures of Romulus residents who do."

However, close scrutiny of the petitions, which are reportedly illegally drawn up, show that scores of the signatures belong to out-of-towners and ineligible voters.

Councilman Barry Baumann attacked DetRo's latest move for community support as "disgustingly deceitful."

"First, let's get this thing straight," Baumann said. "These petitions are illegal because first of all the circulator's name is not clear - they presented us with copies and not the original petitions and the wording of the petitions is vague."

The DetRo petitions state: "We, the undersigned residents and taxpayers, hereby petition you to act positively in allowing the DetRo Recovery Products facility to be built in Romulus. Further, we petition you to discontinue all legal action in opposition to DetRo Recovery Products. We urge you to be aware of the many jobs which will be provided by the plant and of the tax revenues that to the city add to the schools. We the undersigned are convinced that the process and methods are environmentally safe and not offensive but an asset to the community."

Baumann pointed out the names of several persons whose signatures appeared on the petitions and said "that these names belong to youngsters who play baseball on my junior teams."

"I think it's disgustingly deceitful that DetRo would use the young people and the unemployed to gain their way," Baumann said. "And that is the problem with this entire situation - DetRo officials have not been forward with the community from the start."

Baumann, who was elected to council last November, is presently laid off from the General Motors plant in Willow Run.

"I realize the plight of the unemployed because I am also unemployed and am in their ranks. I can identify with their problems, however, to use these people as pawns in a game that may prove detrimental to the welfare and health of this community is deplorable."

"It's giving false hope for immediate employment when we're months, maybe years down the road to settling all this, in the courts," Baumann concluded.

County adopts $18.8 billion property tax assessment

Finally, the Wayne County Board of Commissioners has adopted the $18.8 billion property tax assessment for 1982 recommended by the County Bureau of Taxation, but only after a three-week squabble between commissioners seeking a rollback to 1981 assessment levels and those who insist on additional revenue for escalating costs of public services from county government.

County-wide, the new assessment is $670 million more than last year, costing about 34 cents per month more for the average residential taxpayer. Altogether, it means about $5 million more for the County general fund in the next fiscal year, with proportionate revenue gain for local governmental units, school districts and other taxing jurisdictions.

Adoption of the tax roll prevents intervention by the State Tax Commission, which was prepared to assess $80 million more than that recommended by the County Bureau of Taxation, according to Bureau Director George McEachran. Also, said McEachran, the city or township could collect local taxes until the Board of Commissioners adopted the tax equalization report, which is the basis for property assessments throughout the County.

A proposal by Commissioner William J. Runco to rollback taxes 4.59 percent - the assessed increase that was adopted - was first considered on May 6. The proposal was defeated but stirred enough sympathy on the Board to also defeat the Tax Bureau recommendation. Only after three more attempts, the last two on May 20, was the report of the Bureau of Taxation successful. In the protest, Runco was joined by all out-county commissioners, but chiefly Mary E. Dumas, from Livonia, and Richard E. Manning Redford/Detroit. Runco is from Dearborn.

The out-county argument is that taxpayers complained in "overwhelming numbers" before local boards of tax review, and that residential properties are overvalued in the current real estate market where homes are hard to sell. In contrast, Commissioner Paul G. Citkowski, Chairman of the County Tax Equalization Hearing Board, said that very few local community officials objected during eight days of hearings before the Tax Bureau recommendation was presented to the Board of Commissioners.

Local students appointed to military academies

Wertz to Air Force; Knight to West Point

ROBERT KNIGHT

JAMES L. WERTZ

Congressman William D. Ford (D-Taylor) today announced the appointments of five young men from the 15th Congressional District to the U.S. Military Academy, the Air Force Academy, and Merchant Marine Academy.

Chosen for the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colorado, was James L. Wertz, a 1982 graduate of Belleville High School. The son of David and Burma Wertz, he has maintained a 3.9 grade point average during his high school career, while participating in track and field, the Boy Scouts of America, and playing the lead in several school plays.

Two have been assigned to the Military Academy in West Point, New York. They are Robert Straub, a 1982 graduate of Woodhaven High School, and Robert Knight, a 1980 graduate of Romulus High School.

Straub is the son of Robert and Betty Straub, and has been active in football, track, and student council. He also was the recipient of the Kiwanis Citizenship Award.

Knight is currently attending the U.S. Military Academy Preparatory School at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and played football and baseball. He was a delegate to Boys' State.

Heading off to the Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, New York, will be Eric T. Moening of Dearborn Heights and Christopher G. Vukich, formerly of Taylor, and now attending Munich American High School in West Germany where his father is stationed with the U.S. Air Force.

The son of Thomas and Janice Moening and a 1982 graduate of Divine Child High School, Moening has been active in a number of school athletic clubs and serves as the senior class treasurer. Vukich is the son of Louis and Lee Vukich and was his school's representative to the Model United Nations in The Hague, Netherlands, and student council president. He was also a member of the wrestling team and participated in a number of other school activities.

Appointments for the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Maryland, will be made at a later date.

Kindergarten round-up at Barth School

There will be a meeting of all children residing in the new Barth School attendance area on Friday, May 28, from 1 to 3 p.m.

Children must attain the age of five-years-old on or before December 1, 1982, in order to enroll for kindergarten in September.

Parents are asked to attend with their new kindergartener and bring with them a valid birth certificate and immunization records.

All students residing in the present Mt. Pleasant attendance area will be attending Barth School for the 1982-83 school year.

For further information please call Barth School at 942-0050 between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. - Mondays through Friday.

Vietnam vets eligible for reimbursements

Legislation signed by the President this month includes a provision which allows the Veterans Administration to reimburse Vietnam era veterans and eligible dependents for correspondence training begun after September 30, 1981.

The law ends a moratorium on payments for new enrollments in such training which had been imposed for fiscal year 1982.

Individuals may now receive reimbursement for 55 percent of the total cost of correspondence lessons completed and submitted to the school.

Unaffected are Vietnam era veterans and dependents who have been continuously enrolled in correspondence training since September 30. Post-Vietnam era veterans enrolled in correspondence training under the contributory veterans education program continue to receive full reimbursement.

Eligible veterans or dependents who started correspondence courses since September, or plan to, should contact the nearest VA regional office for details.

Sumpter supervisor blasts Comcast

Reeves: 'We're awaiting an opinion from our attorney'

Comcast Cablevision officials may have pulled the plug on cable TV in Sumpter and Van Buren Townships, but the controversy over their announcement continues to stir emotions.

Comcast announced earlier this month that since they couldn't come to agreement with Romulus city officials, they would not construct the cable TV systems in Van Buren and Sumpter as well. That communique came in the form of a letter to township officials.

Patricia Cullin, Van Buren Township Supervisor, has gone on record as saying that she would ask the township attorney to see what legal action, if any, can be taken against Comcast. She pointed out that when the township board awarded the franchise to Comcast

"there was no discussion that Comcast would build here if they got Romulus. We're going to go after them."

James Reeves, Sumpter Township Supervisor, said that Comcast will also be hearing from the township attorney, Richard James.

"I've talked to our attorney to see what we can do legally about this mess," Reeves said. "They (Comcast) haven't started to build here although we awarded the franchise to them some time ago.

"I want to make it clear I voted against awarding the franchise to them (Comcast)," Reeves continued, "and my reason was that I didn't feel they could provide the services to the majority of our citizens.

"And when I took office I made a pledge that I would represent all of the people in this township and not just those who resided in a subdivision. I didn't feel that the Comcast proposal was adequate then and I felt that it wasn't in the best interests of the people of Sumpter.

"Therefore the board and I need some answers from our attorney before we can move on this," Reeves concluded.

Van Buren recall election set

Wayne County election officials announced today that the question of recalling five members of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees will appear on the Aug. 10 Primary Ballot.

A group of residents are seeking to recall Township Supervisor Patricia Cullin, clerk Doreen Craven, treasurer Tom Welty, and trustees Tim Toohey and Chester Wojcie.

"There was a certain time element involved in our decision to place the recall question on the ballot at that time," said James Killen, Wayne County Clerk. "The legal requirements have been met, and also it will save the township money because a special election won't be necessary."

Not only will local voters decide the fate of their township officials at that time (Aug. 10), but they will be narrowing the field of the candidates for the Wayne County Executive and various other county and state offices.

In the meantime, Richard Debs, former Van Buren Township police commander, is seeking a court injunction to erase a statement about him that appears on the ballot being the impetus behind the recall.

Recall supporters have singled out the ex-police commander as one of the major reasons for the recall, pointing out that the board hired him, "without adequate knowledge of his qualifications and background as required by minimum employment standards established under P.A. 203, thus exposing the township to unlimited liability for his actions as a police officer."

Debs and his attorney, along with Ron Yurchak, who is spearheading the recall campaign, are scheduled to appear in court on Friday to hear what a judge has to say on the question.

If the court rules in favor of Debs, it is unknown at present what legal ramifications, if any, it would have on the recall election.

... School Bd. also has problems

The Van Buren School Board may have wanted to leave the bus business to the Michigan School Bus Service, but, at least four members of the board may have to face a recall election for their actions.

The board recently voted to retain MSBS to manage the school district's student transportation service, however, at least one resident, Nikki Glenn, of Belleville believes that those who voted for MSBS didn't vote in the best interests of the school district.

Therefore, Ms. Glenn is spearheading a recall drive to oust Board President Ronald Tocco, Doris Roe, Robert Cook and Connie Brinkerhoff from office. The four trustees managed to defeat a minority position offered by trustees Dolores Temple, Barbara Falter and David Wertz that the district set up its own transportation division.

At a recent meeting, the board awarded a 4-year contract to MSBS which has provided the bus transportation service for the past 10 years for the students in the school district.

Ms. Glenn charges that the four who voted for the MSBS contract acted irresponsibly with public monies that are needed within the school district. Pointing to a statement made by Mrs. Temple that "the district could save about $276,600 over the next four years if the school district handled transportation and maintenance itself," Ms. Glenn vowed to stage a "door-to-door recall campaign to get enough signatures on the petition to recall the trustees."

However, Tocco and Mrs. Brinkerhoff may not be around to face the voters in that the question of recall ever is placed on the ballot. They are up for re-election on the June 14 ballot.

CETA has jobs for Romulus youths

The Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service telephone number published last week here for those who wished to make application for Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) jobs was in error.

Persons seeking jobs should telephone 721-6550, extension 233.

Some 12 job training and placement positions are available for those who qualify under CETA guidelines, according to Gary Greenwell, project coordinator.

"We're seeking disadvantaged and handicapped youth, including those who have learning disabilities for this program," Greenwell said. "The youths have to be between the ages of 16 to 19 years old, and also must reside in the City of Romulus."

GETA, a federally-funded program, is locally administered by the Wayne County Training Employment Administration.

Residents who feel they qualify for the program should contact Greenwell or Andrew Berman at the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service.

Samuel Tobyne marker dedicated

Some 100 persons gathered Sunday afternoon, May 16th to witness the unveiling of the Samuel Tobyne historic marker sign recently erected at 30617 Henry Ruff Road, Romulus, by the Romulus Historical Society.

Located at the site of Rush's Flowers, corner of Henry Ruff and Van Born Roads, the local historic site No. 5 was where the first Romulus settler "pitched his tent" in the "howling wilderness of marsh, forest, and wolves."

Samuel Tobyne lived there with his wife and five daughters when Tobyne Road was but an Indian trail.

The bright, warm weather was perfect for the Dedication Program held out-of-doors on beautifully-mowed lawn.

Kenneth Krueger, president of the Romulus Historical Society, served as Master of Ceremonies.

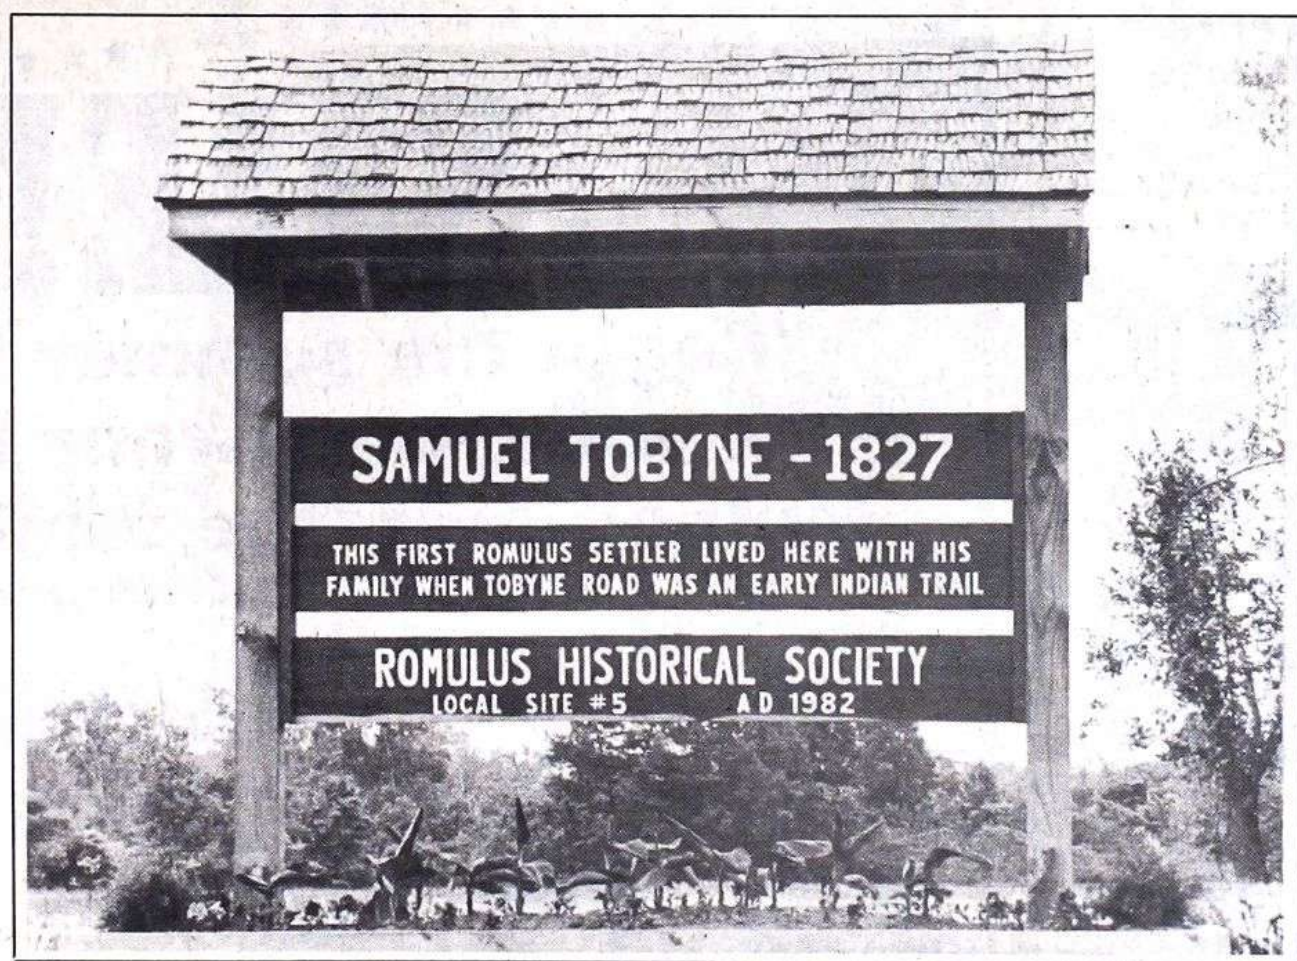

The invocation was given by Father Walter Lezuchowski of St. Aloysius Church of Romulus, just prior to Welcome by the Master of Ceremonies.

Pears Varner, vice-president of the Romulus Historical Society, gave a history of Samuel Tobyne, who first settled in Romulus in 1827.

Romulus Mayor Pro Tem, Mary Ann Banks, then made a Resolution Presentation to Edward Rush and his wife Sharon, owners of the Tobyne Site.

Following the unveiling, Kenneth Krueger, Nell Sheppard and Lillian Patrias (members of the Historic Site Committee) unveiled the marker. Mrs. Rush, owner of the Tobyne Site, accepted the marker.

Highlights of Heritage Day were presented by Gloria Chandler, treasurer of the Romulus Historical Society, Helen Morris Hay, Romulus Historical Society secretary, closed the program by introducing Girl Scout Troop No. 446 leader, Mary Brown, from the Hale Creek School in Romulus. She in turn, introduced each girl who helped to present a flag ceremony and lead the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Owners of the historical site are Edward Rush and his wife, Sharon and his mother Nancy Rush, who own 15.74 acres of the original Tobyne land of 82.08 acres. The Rush family came here circa 50 years ago. Immediately following the program, the Rush family members held Open House at their flowering greenhouses, and served their guests tea sandwiches, cookies, and punch.

Samuel Tobyne took an active part in early government in Romulus Township. The original township records show that he served as Commissioner of Highways from April 1835 through March 1837. The same records first mention Tobyne Road in 1836.

Tobyne Road (also known as the Old Territorial Road) intersects Michigan Avenue (The Old Chicago Turnpike) and crossed Romulus Township at the Tobyne site, 30617 Henry Ruff, (originally called Tobyne Road) on a diagonal south of Pullen's Corners (now known as Five Points). In later years the northern part of Tobyne Road became known as Henry Ruff Road.

Special thank-yous to: Baum Funeral Home; Bilmar's Supermarket; Community United Methodist Church; Hilton Airport Inn; construction and installation of Historic Marker; William B. Cox, Frederick W. Hay, Gerald Diepenhorst, Jr., Frederick Hay, Jr.; Mayor Wm. M. Oakley and Officials of the City of Romulus; Pearl M. Morris and Kenneth Krueger; Linda Patrias and Jim Derhammer; Diane Hazen and Sheldon Chandler; and all those who helped with the dedication program.

The "routing" on the historic marker was done by Silas Binder of Romulus; letter layout by Helen Morris Hay; letter painting by Kenneth Krueger.

After the dedication program, many took the nostalgic drive down Tobyne Road to Pullen's Corners where folks at their picnic lunches. Coffee and cold pop were furnished for all. The huge trays of dessert cookies were furnished with the compliments of the Hilton Airport Inn.

Old-fashioned games for children of all ages provided an afternoon of merriment with everyone competing for the dollar cash prizes. Penny scramble, balloon races, three-legged races, shoe kicks, and others were included on the agenda. Many of the adults played horse shoes throughout the afternoon.

If wishes came true...

Giving the eye to the type of car he almost drove is Canton Township Supervisor James Poole who was gently teased by his staff last month. An unknown prankster among the departmental employees circulated a mock purchase order for a white Lincoln Continental allegedly earmarked for Poole's use. Alas, it was not to be and Poole has to continue to drive his own brown Chevrolet. "I really wish it had been true," the supervisor sighed wistfully. If wishes were horses...

They attended seminar

Two residents of Romulus were among a group of 31 from throughout the U.S. attending a two-day seminar on underground construction equipment in Perry, Oklahoma.

Most of those in the group were involved with cable television equipment or installations. The seminar was held at the Charles Machine Works, Inc., where Ditch Witch equipment is manufactured. Sessions were held with design engineers, equipment technicians and marketing personnel. Also included was a tour of the CMW office and plant, the world's largest manufacturer of service line trenchers.

From Romulus were David Paszkowski, 37597 Wabash, underground construction manager for Network Communications, 27456 Northline Rd., and Dave Jeffery, 24084 Rosewood, general manager for the firm with offices in Romulus.

School crisis

Open letter to Romulus school district voters

This is an Open Letter to the residents of Romulus.

What are some disappointments in life:

1. Seeing your children do without the things that you want them to have;

2. Trying to make ends meet with the income that comes in;

3. Watching the school millage renewal "bite the dust."

I find it hard to believe that, as a community, we will let our children down. We all know that it takes money to run our own homes just as it takes money to run a school system.

Why is it then, we close our eyes to the real needs of our children? If we miss a house payment, we're out in the cold. There is no difference if the school system fails to meet their payments.

We're getting tired of this yoyo effect we seem to be in. Let's review the past:

On November 3, 1981, we passed a Bond Issue to bring our school system out of debt. A large corporation bought the bonds (stock) with the outlook on helping us out. Now, let's look at what has just happened. On April 26, 1982, we were asked to pass on 8.5 millage renewal and it failed. I have asked myself why? There is no real reason for the failure unless many of us don't know the difference between tax increase and tax renewal.

Let's look at some facts. What is an increase? (Webster's definition of an):

INCREASE: To augment or make greater in size, quantity, number, value, degree, etc.

RENEWAL: To give or set an extension of; as to renew a lease.

Does a renewal ask for a tax increase? Not to me. How about you?

Let's look at it in layman terms. You earn $100 a month and it takes $100 a month to make ends meet. Your boss informs you that he wants to cut your pay by $25.00 a month. That leaves your pay at $75.00 a month.

We all want, but no one wants to pay for what they want. I think it's about time that we throw our support behind our kids and give them what they need and that's the chance to be successful at anything they choose to do in their lives.

How can they if they were short changed on their education.

We have asked for your school system to operate on less money. Cuts have been made and I'm sure more cuts will be made if we don't pull together as a team and pass the renewal when it comes up again.

C.A.R.E. in action
for holidays

State Police Director, Col. Gerald L. Hough, said "Operation C.A.R.E." (Combined Accident Reduction Effort), the department's summer holiday weekend traffic safety program, will again be in effect for Memorial Day weekend.

This year, 42 states will take part in this nationwide program which began in 1977 between Michigan and Indiana. C.A.R.E. utilizes volunteer organizations at traffic safety breaks across the state, an intense media campaign and increased traffic patrols to achieve safer highways during the Memorial Day, Fourth of July and Labor Day weekends.

Last year during the Memorial Day weekend, Michigan State Police troopers: Removed 259 drinking drivers from the highway; assisted 2,459 troubled motorists; warned 6,761 motorists for unsafe driving actions; issued 10,159 traffic citations.

State Police said 12 persons lost their lives last year over the Memorial Day weekend on Michigan highways, and none of those killed was wearing a safety belt. Three of the accidents involved motorcycles. Five, or 56 per cent of the accidents involved drinking.

C.A.R.E., which operates in Michigan under a federal grant from The Office of Highway Safety Planning, has received a 30 per cent reduction in funds which will reduce the overtime traffic patrol hours from 4,000 in 1981 to just over 3,200 for Memorial weekend.

To maximize the enforcement with the limited resources, 2,118 miles of target highways have been selected for C.A.R.E. patrols concentration. The cooperation of

Candidate urges:

Put $45,000 lid on CEO's salary

Harry A. Stearnes, Republican candidate for Wayne County Executive, said he would recommend that the CEO salary be set at not more than $45,000 per year.

Stearnes explained that the charter is not clear in its interpretation whether the county commissioners or the Compensation Board will establish compensation for the CEO when the position and the new home rule charter are implemented January 1st, 1983.

"The $45,000 figure, Stearnes said, "is about $30,000 less than what is anticipated by the other candidates. I believe fiscal responsibility should start at the top and I will take a dim view of any county administrators who feel they deserve more than I am recommending for the CEO job. Taxpayers are hard-pressed and to insult them by accepting a higher rate of pay is out of the question. "I fear that most of the candidates for county executive are looking at what the county can do for them—not what they can do for the county—to paraphrase former President John Kennedy," Stearnes pointed out. When asked how the recommendation for the smaller salary might be proposed, the Republican candidate said it would probably be aired through one or more of the county commissioners who are mindful of the county's current financial plight.

CHECKING DENTURES

Fortunately — or unfortunately — you no longer have any problems with your upper teeth. They were all removed some years ago and you now wear a full upper denture. Does this mean you can forget about visiting your dentist regularly? Not if you value your health and future comfort!

Regular appointments with the dentist are as important for denture-wearers as for people with natural teeth. The mouth tissue, bony ridges and gums that support dentures are, constantly undergoing changes and may impair the dentures' proper function. Even such general health ailments as vitamin deficiencies, extended illness, drug therapy, weight loss, diabetes or high blood pressure can change the way dentures fit.

Ill-fitting dentures can seriously damage the mouth, causing abrasions, bruises, inflammation and rapid destruction of the supporting bone. Prolonged irritation of this kind may result in the development of tumors.

It is important to have a dental checkup at least once a year to insure that your dentures are properly adjusted and that your mouth is in good health.

A public service to promote better dental health. From the office of KENNETH A. FOX, D.D.S., 9840 Haggerty Rd., Belleville. Phone 697-4400.

Techniques of photography capture the attention of Romulus adult education student Patricia Mawby who attends one of the many classes offered by the school district. The Romulus program will hold an 'Open House' on June 3 from 11:30 until 1:30 p.m. and the public is invited.

Romulus Adult Ed. to hold 'Open House'

Romulus Adult Education will hold an Open House for Thursday, June 3, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., according to Bill Smith, Director of Community Education.

The special affair will be held at the Adult Education Center (old South Junior High), 1401 Olive Street.

"The public is encouraged to attend the Open House, and we especially hope that adults who have not completed high school will stop by to see what we have to offer," Smith said.

"Staff and students will be in attendance to answer questions about free adult high school and hobby classes and to show people around the building.

"This is our first year in the former junior high facility, and we are now able to offer a greater variety of classes because of additional space," Smith added.

Future plans for the facility include a child care room, improvements in the office skills room and medical careers laboratory, and new rooms for science and art classes.

Prospective students are encouraged to fill out a "request for records" form during the open house so that their high school credits can be evaluated prior to the start of adult high school on September 13, 1982.

The purpose of bankruptcy is to help the debtor get back on his feet again. This is achieved in bankruptcy by having his debts discharged thereby making them no longer collectable by law.

Let it be known that certain debts may not be dischargeable by virtue of Section 523 of the Bankruptcy Code.

To further assist the debtor, the court allows him to claim certain property as exempt. This means the debtor is allowed to keep such property or a dollar value limit.

The debtor is allowed to choose between the exemptions provided by the state where he has been domiciled (residing) for 180 days or longer before filing the petition for bankruptcy plus certain federal exemptions provided by law and the exemptions listed in Section 522(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The debtor cannot choose the exemptions in Section 522(d) if state law forbids such a choice.

In future articles I will tell you what the exemptions are in the State of Michigan and under the Bankruptcy Code.

Beyer rolls out 'white carpet' for area employees

Beyer Memorial Hospital employees rolled out the white carpet recently at their service awards banquet when the name of Shyo Itami was announced.

Itami, an Ann Arbor resident, walked on the carpet surrounded by fellow employees giving him a standing ovation as he was recognized for 30 years of service as an employee of Beyer. The hospital's chief pharmacist was one of 63 Beyer employees honored and awarded service pins at the recent employee recognition event.

Because of his longevity and his "dedication and commitment," Itami's award was highlighted during the dinner program.

But, Beyer Hospital Administrator Laura Weng told all employees present that "every one of you makes a difference," and thanked them for service to Beyer, a unit of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA).

The Beyer Hospital Medical Staff sponsored the event, which was held at the Washtenaw County Country Club. Robert J. Fisher, M.D., Chief of Staff, was greeted with applause as he told the gathering of some 150 employees and guests that "the medical staff wants to thank all of you for your dedication in taking care of our patients."

In addition to the one 30-year award recipient, two Beyer employees were honored for 25 years of service. They were Ellen Brooks of the accounting department, a resident of Onsted, and Roberta Smith, a head nurse who resides in Florida. Three 20-year award recipients were Marie Cobb, an Ypsilanti resident, Robena Davis of Ann Arbor, and Betty Lange of Belleville.

Fifteen-year award recipients were: Marguerite Buchanan of Canton, Vera Cook, Wava Gunderson, Martha Hendricks, JoAnn Wilson and Betty Wiltse of Ypsilanti; Kay Van Camp of Ann Arbor; Doris Shukait of Whittaker and Winifred Young of Nashville, Michigan.

Ten-year award recipients were: Helen Banotai, Barbara Ellsworth, Marilyn Maynard and Jean Meyer of Belleville; Mary Beatrice Cammet, Judith Dalton, Regina DeRossett, Lynda Elliott, Hilda Fraser, Cora Fry, William Jording, Judith Lothman, Carol McClure, Charlotte Wiard and Patricia Wilson of Ypsilanti; Rebecca Davis of Dundee; Carol Fletcher and Laura Smock of Ann Arbor; Marian Groom of Saline; Brenda Johnson of Whittaker; Mary McAllister and Irene Roberts of Plymouth; Flossie Smith of Milan and John Wheeler of Westland.

Five-year award recipients were: Robert Allen, Christopher Madigan, and Dennis Strach and Janet Taylor of Ann Arbor; Rachel Brown, Elizabeth Gould and Linda Pfeifer of Canton; Susan Chopp and Leslie Kirks of Westland; Wilma Dotson, Dawn Hamilton, Julia Matheny, Beth McCoy, Dianna Meadows, Lee Pee, Causby Tincer, Donna Walter and Ruth Widner of Ypsilanti; Raymond Fattel of Dexter; Elizabeth Falconer, Deacy McCalpin and Mary Wojtaszek of Belleville; Nora Schroeder of South Lyon and Theresa Woodson of Saline.

Our Opinions

'Memorial Day' - We should never forget

Most of us will get a day off on Monday to commemorate Memorial Day.

And most of us will enjoy that day, each in our own way. Some will visit the graves of our beloved, and lay plants or flowers at the side of those whom we dearly remember. We'll briefly pause at the gravestone and reminisce.

Here are some of our thoughts.

While we are among the unique who have the gift of life, pause and remember that this special day is special because so many have died for it.

We wonder what the Doughboys who fought that war so long ago would say to us if they could return to our ranks. After all, they fought that war to end all wars. And yet, the sounds of battle can be heard in the Falklands.

And what would those fallen G.I.s, who defeated Nazi Germany and Hirohito's Japan tell us if they, too, were given the gift of life today? They, too, were told they were fighting a war to end all wars.

Would they be disappointed in us? Our society? Our world?

Korea, Vietnam... now the Falklands and didn't Argentina say the other day that it would accept Soviet help if the war would prolong? God forbid! Another war to end all wars?

So many battles, so many wars, so many wounded, so many dead.

Memorial Day!

Gravestones are so cold. Are they the end of the beginning? There is a fusillade of memories and questions that always arise when men take up arms against one another. Liked a needle-sharp instrument those words — died in vain — hurt us.

The reports spewing out of the "hot spots" of the world—Iran, Iraq, Lebanon, South America and, of course, the Falklands, can only give credence to those who believe that man is on the road to self-destruction.

World War III—a thought for Memorial Day 1982.

But man and mankind have always had this uncanny ability to fight back. When one views the Victor Hermans of the world, it gives the rest confidence that within these fibers of muscle and blood there is a will in each and everyone to survive.

Herman, who survived the tortures and concentration camps of Soviet Russia, to come back and tell his story, personifies that determination in man for life.

Moreover, the world has always been restless and its residents have teetered on the brink of world holocausts before but, some how mankind has survived.

To those who have their rockets of destruction poised for battle again, let them recall the battlefields of the past.

There will be no victors in another world conflict. No crowds to cheer the returning heroes; no conquering armies.

Just one huge, grim graveyard.

In Loving Memory

We do not need Memorial Day
On May the thirty first
To remind us of how we miss you
Since God called you from this earth
We loved you so, we'll never forget
One week, one day, one hour
The part we shared in your precious life
The gain, the strength, the power
Just knowing you made life complete
Loving husband, son, brother, uncle & friend
You gave so much to the lives you touched,
And those memories will never end
Oh, loving boy, kind gentle man
You were a special kind
The pride, the joy, the cherished thoughts
You left in hearts behind
The memory of your smile, your walk
You wit, your charm, your face
All these that made you such a man
Can never be erased.
Like a hope divine in this old world
You stood so tall among men
Your voice could calm a troubled mind
And give us peace again
We know you send your love to us
The signs are every where
We see your face in heaven above
And strive to meet you there
You left to soon, we know not why
Unfilled your earthly dreams
But to have walked with you & talked with you
In our hearts like a sunlight beams
Until the day God calls us home
To be with you above
We'll cherish the memory of sharing your life
With pride, with honor, with love
So we go on with emptiness
From the loss of one so dear
Our family chain is broken now
But your spirit is always near
Our grief for you is beyond words
What else can we say
Yes, we'll remember forever & ever
We don't need a special day

A closer look at tax law proposed by Rep. Smith

There has been much discussion of the proposed amendment to the Michigan State Constitution sponsored by Representative Roy Smith and promoted by several township boards.

This amendment is supposed to shift the financial burden of local and secondary schools from the property tax on homeowners to the sales tax.

Representative Smith, at a Canton Township meeting, claimed that the amendment has the support of all the major lobby groups in Lansing.

A closer examination reveals why.

The first point to be made is that the amendment does not lower the total tax burden of the citizens of the state. It, at best, will result in a shifting of the tax burden from what is probably a proportional tax to a regressive tax.

The second point is that the proposed amendment contains several features which create an incentive for an increase in the total tax burden.

Section 3, whereby the state must fully reimburse school districts for all the property tax excluded by the amendment, acts as a matching grant to the local school districts.

As the section is written, for every one dollar your local school district assesses in property tax, the state provides 75 cents and you provide 25 cents. This has what economists call an income and a substitution effect, which serves as a strong incentive for school districts to raise property taxes. This is because for every dollar you raise locally, taxpayers throughout the state will provide three more.

Of course, each school district has this incentive, thus you may find your sales and income taxes going up faster than your property tax payment falls.

The limit on the amount of property tax to be reimbursed by the state is established at no less than $1,800 per homestead. This means that the legislature can set any limit higher than this, in fact no limit, as they like. Thus the matching grant could become open-ended.

The sales tax increase necessary to finance this open-ended matching grant to local school districts is limited to 1%. However, there is no limit on the increase in the income tax.

Indeed, the state must provide the matching funds. And the proposal specifically excludes the state expenditures and revenues connected with this amendment from the limitations imposed by the Headlee amendment of 1978.

The only constraining factor on the increase in the taxes which could result from this amendment comes from Section 6 of Article IX of the 1963 Constitution, which sets a total millage limitation of 50 mills, for not more than 20 years at one time, on all real and tangible personal property.

A lesson to be drawn from this is that a careful analysis of proposed legislation is needed by the voters and their representatives.

We have often been told that legislation is designed to lower our taxes or provide better service when the actual result is quite the opposite.

Boosters have 2nd thoughts on funding athletic programs

The Tiger Booster Club undertook the responsibility of funding the 1981-82 sports program at Belleville High School. Before the Booster Club approached the Van Buren School Board last summer, we contacted as many athletic parents as possible to be sure the parents were behind the program and willing to participate in fund raising activities. The parent response was very positive and with this encouragement we were able to convince the Board of Education to grant approval for private funding.

Over the past year the Booster Club has overcome many stumbling blocks. Attorney General Kelly's ruling regarding mandatory fees placed a great burden on the Booster Club. For prior to this ruling a large portion (approximately) $40,000 of the budget reflected fee revenues. In spite of the new state mandate, the Tiger Booster Club remained optimistic. We believe that the Belleville athletes and their families would understand that the need for the money was still there and hoped that the majority of the funds would be donated. We were wrong.

Approximately 100 athletes and their families recognized their individual responsibility to the athletic program and contributed the $100 tax deductible donation. The remaining 250 athletes and their parents for a variety of reasons, chose not to donate funds or participate in fund raising activities.

We, as a small yet strong group of concerned parents, continue to meet and work on fund raising projects in order to pay the bills incurred by all Belleville athletes during the 1981-82 school year; however our commitment to finance Belleville athletics ends on July 1, 1982.

As we reflect upon this past year and look toward the future we realize that our club cannot, and should not be expected to, accept the responsibility for funding the 1982-83 athletic program without the financial and physical support of all athletic parents.

We firmly believe that the athletic program is an important and integral part of the total school program and is essential to the health and welfare of our students and community. With this thought in mind we have again gone to the Board of Education to seek approval for private funding next year. Yet we have also indicated to the Board that unless 100 percent of our athletes' parents are willing to support the project proposed at that meeting, all sports programs will be cancelled for the 1982-83 school year.

Our athletes need and deserve your support. The program will not succeed without it. This will mean the end of athletics at Belleville High School.

BELLEVILLE BOOSTER CLUB

Along with the many congratulatory messages, there were two state resolutions honoring Don Barden for his success in building the cable TV system in Inkster. Presenting Barden, president of Barden Cablevision (second from left) with a House of Representatives' resolution is William Keith (D-Inkster) at left, and from the State Senate is David Plawewski of Dearborn Heights. More than 400 local, state and national figures attended Barden Cablevision's "System's Dedication" last week.

Inkster turned on by Barden

Tom Mooradian
Managing Editor

Although it is a cliché, it is appropriate to say Don Barden made believers out of unbelievers.

And, anyone who attended Saturday's Barden Cablevision of Inkster "System Dedication" would have to agree that this man, Barden, probably can walk on water. His $3 million cable TV system built in the worst of times, during an economy that is described by the financial wizards as equaling that of the Great Depression, became a reality.

Barden is President of Barden Cablevision.

"He convinced me," said Inkster councilman Patrick O'Neil. "I didn't vote for his company back there in September, but look what he did here for our city."

What the young and articulate Inkster-raised Barden did was put together a staff and crew which constructed in less than six months a 54-channel capacity cable TV system that, according to people who know, "is second to none in Michigan."

The self-confidence he, Barden, generates, can be found in the entire building at 26380 Michigan Ave. Now decorated with plush carpets, office furniture and scores of television sets, the building stood vacant seven months ago.

And, more important, Barden has provided jobs for people who need jobs more than anything else.

The red carpet treatment these guests received was understandable. They make up the "Who's Who" of the city, county and state. And each had superlatives to use for the man and the facility.

The guest list also included people like Erma Henderson, President of the Detroit City Council; state senator Dave Plawewski, who happens to want Gov. Milliken's job; State Rep. William Keith; Wayne County Commissioner Kay Beard; Romulus Mayor Pro Tem Mary Ann Banks; Romulus Councilman John Lewkowicz, Romulus Treasurer Bev. McAnally; Mel Ravitz; Detroit councilman who is seeking to become the first Wayne County Executive.

And from the city, Mayor William Daniels, councilmen O'Neil, Joseph Davis Jr., Ernest Hendricks, Willie Johnson and city manager Wylie Williams were delirious with the success of the project.

Unfortunately, councilmen James Colleran and Robert W. Cullen were unable to make it to this ceremony. Or could it be we missed them in the 400 or so guests?

Colleran, Cullen and O'Neil voted against awarding the franchise to Barden.

Then, that was understandable. Barden had little experience in the venture he proposed to accomplish.

When the bidding began last September and when such major cable TV firms such as Teleprompter, Omnicom and Comcast announced they wanted Inkster, few figured Barden had a chance.

In fact, many shouted 'foul' when he did get council approval to build.

Barden is black, and the four councilmen who voted for him also happen to be black.

Saturday night those four councilpersons proved they had more foresight than most of us. They gave Barden the right to prove he can do it.

And Barden 'turned Inkster on'.

Believe me, Inkster is also going to turn on Barden Cablevision.

A Libertarian and Reaganomics

EDITOR — Your recent editorial, "Reagan's economics - why it's all wrong", goes well with the news of the recent shenanigans in Lansing.

Reagan, a Republican, is carrying out his campaign promise to increase the budget just a little slower than Carter would have, and Republican governor Milliken has finally pushed through the income tax increase after the umpteenth vote.

I had always believed that Republicans were supposed to be for less government. (Let's not even mention Democrats!)

After paying closer attention to politics I realized that that wasn't so. This is why I have since become a Libertarian.

In the last two years, our party has experienced phenomenal growth. This year we have a full slate of over 100 candidates throughout the state, from Governor on down to County Commissioners. Now the people of Michigan have a real opportunity to throw the rascals out.

MICHAEL PALONUS
Libertarian candidate

33rd district

My father, the drunk

EDITOR — My father was picked up again last week and put in jail overnight for drinking and driving for the fifth time. He is back on the road drinking and driving today.

Because he has some friends on the police force and city officers who get him out of these charges with only a small fine.

I'd like to say to his friends. They think they are doing him a favor. But it is not a favor at all. The guy is an alcoholic and needs medical help - not a coverup to continue drinking.

This is a constant worry to his family because he is going to kill himself or some innocent child or persons.

So please think of the outcome before you break the law. You are suppose to be enforcing the law. Are you helping or not? I hope some of the mothers of MDDD - read my letter, and check these law-breakers.

MRS. E.B.

Jaycees come through again

EDITOR — I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Mel McGowan and the Wayne Jaycees for their generosity and thoughtfulness in treating our McGrath Special Education students to a day at the Jaycee sponsored carnival on May 13.

Most of our physically impaired and hearing impaired students had never been on carnival rides, and it was a thrill they will never forget.

All one had to do was to look at their faces to see what a great time they were having.

The Jaycees and the carnival workers were extremely helpful in getting the students on and off rides.

Thank you again for a wonderful day.

Sincerely,

MRS. SUZANNE McBRIDE,
Director Othopedic Education

Combs backed by Metro-Wayne

The Metro Wayne Democratic Club met Wednesday, April 2 at the Wayne Community Center to screen and endorse candidates for the Wayne-Westland School Board.

Each candidate had an opportunity to speak and field questions from the audience. By secret ballot, Mr. Dewey Combs was endorsed by the Metro Wayne Democratic Club. He received the majority of votes cast.

We urge the citizens of the Wayne-Westland School District to give him their support on Monday, June 14.

Teacher thanks W-W parents

EDITOR — Due to an expected decline in enrollment I, like many people in the Wayne-Westland area, will be laid off. Before that event occurs, I want to publicly thank the citizens of Wayne-Westland for giving me the opportunity to work in this district.

In the eleven years I have worked here I have had the opportunity to travel with students, teach in Europe, and be a part of an excellent educational system.

After teaching thousand of students and talking with hundreds of parents, it is gratifying to think of the support that has been given to me. Teaching in Wayne-Westland is as exciting for me today as it was eleven years ago.

I realize that right now there are sharp differences in the community concerning the future of our schools. Regardless of the decision of the community, I just wanted you to know, it's been nice. Once again Wayne-Westland, Thank You!

'Don't go with strangers' helpful

EDITOR — The Quirk School staff would like to express our gratitude and appreciation to the Van Buren Township Police Department and especially officers Haney and Laskaska for the excellent presentation of the "Don't Go With Strangers" program.

The officers willingly extended their time schedule so that every child could see the film as well as talk to the officers informally during the lunch hour.

We commend the fine example set by these two men and their concern for the safety of our children.

Parents like W-W schools

EDITOR — As parents of four boys who attend four different schools in the Wayne-Westland School District, we must say that there really hasn't been too much to complain about.

We have been very impressed over the years with the progress of our children. They go to school every day with an eagerness we never knew in our days. They're learning and yet loving it at the same time.

We would like to offer a special thanks to the Wayne-Westland School District, the school authorities, and your teacher for filling in the voids that we as parents could not fill. You have unselfishly given of yourself to the needs of our children. We have made a great team.

Another award should be given to those parents (you know who you are) who have offered themselves as volunteers. The schools will always be in need of your time and knowledge. Our awards will be found in heaven, but in the meantime, let's enjoy a rewarding life with our little blessings from above.

Teacher deciphers writer's message

EDITOR — Having waded through the puzzling grammar of Mrs. Runion's recent letters to The Associated Newspapers regarding the Wayne-Westland Community School situation, I think I have finally figured out her message. As a teacher I feel compelled to speak out in her behalf. Truly I have seen the light.

Some misguided souls might argue that the school district's fiscal problems are at least in part due to the fact that state aid to local districts has been slashed drastically over the past very few years. Others might argue that the current severe economic problems of the state carry over to local school districts. How ridiculous. This explanation is so logical that it cannot possibly be true. The fault, therefore, must be elsewhere. It has to be a plot. Blame must be assigned.

The teachers of the Wayne-Westland Schools are the most likely culprits.

We have, after all, been paid so much that most of us are having difficulty deciding whether to buy Lincolns or Cadillacs, or whether to vacation in the South of France or in Monaco. (My car looks like a nine year old Chevrolet; it is actually a new Cadillac in disguise.)

I agree with Mrs. Runion's view that teachers have lost their dedication and are no longer interested in the welfare of students. It may appear that teachers show genuine interest and also appear to be dedicated, but this is just a smokescreen.

Many teachers have no time for students because they are involved in clearly subversive and even evil organizations and activities. Some teachers I know actually belong to the P.T.A. and everyone knows about this left-wing radical group. Other questionable groups teachers knowingly join include the Book-of-the-Month Club, the Audubon Society, and Trout Unlimited.

Also, as I walked by a teacher's classroom the other day, I heard a strange incantation being read from what was clearly a scurrilous book. The words were, "Double, double, toil and trouble! Fire burn and cauldron bubble!" This teacher undoubtedly belongs to a coven of witches, and was trying to convert those students.

Some radicals might suggest that teachers must raise children, pay bills, pay taxes, and worry about day-to-day problems, just as other people do. This is not true; it is just vicious propaganda. Their real goal is to take over the school system, then the state, then the country.

Something must be done, and I think Ms. Runion is on the right track. I know she must have all the correct solutions to the Wayne-Westland School District's problems, but, poor reader that I am, I'm having difficulty understanding all her clever explanations. I can deduce from her letters the following: (A) She doesn't like teachers or teachers' unions very much; (B) she doesn't like five of the seven board members; and (C) she doesn't like Superintendent Tim Dyer.

Somewhere in her well-justified diatribes against these evils, there must be logical, intelligent suggestions for cures for the school district's problems, but I guess I'm just not subtle enough to understand Ms. Runion's solution, which are obviously the products of a superior, well-trained logical mind. We should all unite behind Ms. Runion and the people she supports. Those who think her arguments sound like mere mudslinging and egotistical ranting must be ignored. After all, people with ideas similar to Ms. Runion's made the Taylor School District into a model district, and solved all the Taylor Schools' problems.

I have a suggestion for Dr. Dyer, if heeded, will solve all the difficulties facing the schools. Please resign, Dr. Dyer, and take your co-conspirators in Central Administration with you. Then, advise the school board to appoint Ms. Runion as Superintendent. Her superior wisdom, academic preparation, administrative experience and personal integrity will save us from the grim evils of teachers, administrators, and certain board members, who pose such a threat to our schools, our community, our country, and our precious bodily fluids.

Home again-How sweet it is Home again!

And if you have been wondering how come May in Michigan is having all this bright sunshine, it is because I brought it home with me from California, as a special gift to you!

It is all right if you don't want to believe that, but how else can you explain it?

How beautiful home is.

Today the soft breezes are blowing the white curtains out into the room, and through the windows I glimpse the lilacs in full bloom, and even though most of the tulips have had their day in glory, there are still a few left, lifting their colorful petals to the sun and from across the street I hear the cry of a little one who came to this earth while I was gone.

I am filled with the sense of belonging to all of this, and from the very depths of my being there rises a beam of joy.

My eye catches a published letter to the editor lying on my desk. "Who's afraid of Hagelthorn?" and I marvel that anyone should even think of being afraid of someone, who doesn't know a crutch when she sees one.

Sydney Harris wrote the other day that no matter what one writes, nor how lucid he writes it, there will be someone out there to misinterpret it.

I suppose where I made the big mistake which seemed to ruffle the feathers was the paragraph in which I said that this country was founded and acclaimed a Christian nation. I didn't say the constitution acclaimed it.

I suppose what I meant, and which I must admit I didn't write too well, is that the western civilization is usually considered a Christian civilization, since the majority, or at least at one time, the majority practices Christianity.

The point I was trying to get across was that the Constitution does indeed give us the freedom of religion, not the freedom to impose one set of beliefs on impressionable children, so how come an amendment was made to impose Madeline Murray O'Hair's beliefs on impressionable children?

Then I went on to say that I never would have made it through geometry without a bit of prayer, and my reader says that is all right for my psyche, but he doesn't need or want a crutch.

Well... when one has a broken leg, one uses a crutch doesn't one? I was real happy for my crutch that day in geometry, because I had a broken head, it wasn't thinking right. And there have been, oh so many days in my life when I have happily grabbed that crutch and hobbled through... tragedies, sadness, whatever, and made it... made it so that I was able to see the sunshine again, smell the flowers, glory in being alive and feel the softness of love.

I'll bet it's not easy being an atheist as my reader contends, I would hate to have to grapple with the murder of a loved one all alone. I would be hard, and I don't think I would have made it. I NEED that crutch!

I think the trouble with people who have thrown away their crutch, is that they take 'religion' too literally. They go around jousting with devils and hell and wrathful gods and they think 'I'm not going to embrace something that scares me half to death.'

Nobody knows who God is, or what. When I explained my concept of God I have people writing calling me a pantheist. And maybe I am.

One day I had a dream. I dreamed that way off from where I was standing was a 'being,' arms outstretched, and from that being emanated a gossamer filament, which enveloped the universe, the planets, the stars, and our own earth whirling at the feet of the 'being.' Not only did that gossamer filament envelope the universe, but it penetrated it, each planet, each star; touching the trees, the grass, the flowers, the seas, and man, enfolding them all into one.

And I saw that gossamer filament was rather like electricity. No one can explain electricity, what it is, where it comes from, but there is no one reading this column, who doesn't know the results of electricity.

When we need light, we plug in and turn on, as long as we have a vehicle through which that light can travel. When we need power we plug in and turn on and we get power, as long as we have a vehicle through which that power can travel.

If there is no vehicle, if there is no plugging in and turning on, it does not follow that there is no electricity. It's there. To be Used! If one needs it. A crutch, so to speak.

So it is with the goassamer filament emanating from that being I call God. Whether that being is a body like yours and mine, or whether that being is one great, compelling intellect, doesn't really matter. When we need light we can plug into that filament and turn on, as long as we are the vehicle through which it can travel. If we need power we plug in and turn on. But because in my dream I saw that love is the essence of that filament, then I propose that if we can learn to draw on the power of love, if we can learn to wrap ourselves in the filament of light, then we can truly reach out with joy to the world, and to all creatures of that world.

We can take that love power and meet the tragedies and the hurts and the pain head on, and come through wrapped in light.

We can recognize that death is a transition into a different light. We can recognize that pain can indeed be a purifier, and we can recognize that suffering may be a way in which we are being told that we are out of sync with that all powerful filament of love permeating our universe, and we need to plug in and turn on.

That is my sermon for the day. Now I am going out into my back yard and reach my arms towards the blue sky and say "Thank you, thank you for this day," and I will blithely twirl my crutch as I do so, keeping tight hold of it, in case it might be needed again at any time... any place.

room holding 40-plus people, 100-plus presents, a banquet table and a Christmas tree fit for the White House lawn, and if, at the end of the evening, he or she can still say, "That wasn't so bad", we figure that person deserves to be a part of our family.

On the other hand, if the new-comer panics, grabs his coat, says he's going out for a breath of fresh air, and never comes back again, we don't even bother to hunt through the wrappings box to see if he might have fallen in there by mistake. We know why he left. Some of us were new-comers ourselves once.

(Oh, by the way, we're all gathering in Mount Clemens this Memorial Day. Come and join us... but stay out of the tall grass — the alligator's long gone, but "Don Rickles" still likes to hook onto ankles.)

Talk about family affairs

As I write this, we are getting ready to go to a family gathering. This one—as most are—is a pot-luck-bring-your-own-Frisbee-and lawn-chair-affair. The kids will bring the darts and baseball stuff. The grown-ups will be responsible for the food and the sweaters.

We will have fun. We always do... even when we balk at going—saying we want to work on the yard or we want to avoid the crowds.

Because in our family, the family is the crowd. (I stopped counting when marriages and new babies brought the count to over 40.)

Part of the fun will be in retelling the things that happened at gatherings past. Like the time one of us (an adult, no less) picked up a hatchet, aimed it at a tree trunk and sent it sailing. The clothesline that was in the hatchet's path intercepted it and sent it sailing right back into the hatchet-thrower's forehead. The stigma long outlasted the scar.

Or the time the hon-eymooners brought a baby alligator back from Florida and it got loose in the long grass. While we were looking for it, the relative who thinks he's Don Rickles sneaked up behind a person and hooked onto an ankle — just like a baby alligator would...

Or the time we were all up at the lake and one of us—the one who believes in werewolves—was out on the lake in the boat by himself when the malamute down the way started howling at the moon. The believer in the boat thrashed and crashed and screamed—and made an all-around spectacle of himself before he finally hauled himself ashore.

Then there was the time the kids—all 28 of them—had a screamingly funny full-face snapshot of the patriarch of the family blown up to 10 times its size and reproduced onto 28 tee-shirts. When the kids came marching out of the house one by one to stand in front of the poor victim, he was stuck dumb by the sight of himself 28 times, and we all laughed until we cried and it hurt to take a deep breath.

We've been lucky our family. We're all still together, we care about each other... and we never get into fights.

We had neighbors once whose family congregated at their house every weekend. They had a good time playing ball and doing all the usual things—until night fell. Then, as though a gong had sounded, the owner of the house and his brother would come together on the front lawn (which, come to think of it, was as square as a boxing ring) and would proceed to pound each other's brains out.

Now, you would think that once was enough—but, no—every summer weekend the same scenario took place. It was exciting at first, as we watched from a safe seat at ringside—but it got boring after awhile, when we realized it didn't really mean a thing. It was just their little way of saying, "I love you".

In a family the size of ours, the toughest part is initiating new-comers into the ranks. Usually the new-comer is a "date", and we warn our young people not to get too attached to that person until after Christmas Eve.

Christmas Eve is the moment of truth; the "trial by fire". Bring a new person into a slightly-larger-than-average living

Doreen Craven, Van Buren clerk achieves certification

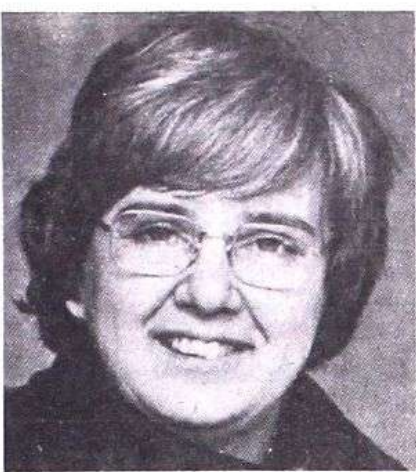

The International Institute of Municipal Clerks is pleased to announce that Doreen Craven, Township Clerk of Van Buren Township, has been awarded the designation of Certified Municipal Clerk for achieving the high educational, experience, and service requirements established by this Institute for attainment of this honor.

Ms. Craven was elected to her present position with Van Buren Township in 1976 and she also serves as Fire Commissioner for the Volunteer Fire Department and is a member of the Lake Commission, Public Safety Commission, and the Fred C. Fischer Library Committee.

She completed the three-year education program for professional clerks by attending Syracuse University (New York) and Michigan State University. These programs involve over 100 student/instructor contact hours of in-depth courses in public administration; social and interpersonal concerns, and functionally-related subjects. It is designed to provide perspective, information, and practical skills for greater understanding of those changes taking place in each community.

Mrs. Craven is a member of the Wayne County Municipal Clerks Association as well as the International Institute of Municipal Clerks.

Active in community affairs, she is a member of the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, the University of Michigan Alumni Club, the Founders Society- Detroit Institute of Arts, the Belleville -Van Buren Goodfellows and the 15th District and Van Buren- Belleville Democratic organizations.

She joins 68 other Michigan Municipal Clerks who presently hold the designation of Certified Municipal Clerk (CMC).

The unique Certification Program of the IIMC was launched in 1970, climaxing ten years of planning. The program aids municipal clerks in improving their job performance and recognizes the professionalization of the Municipal Clerk's office. Completion of a recognized career development institute or a baccalaureate degree, responsible experience in local government, and participation in conferences, meetings, and educational seminars contribute to achieving the prestigious Certified Municipal Clerk designation. Qualifications of applicants are reviewed and approved by the IIMC Board of Certification.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The International Institute of Municipal Clerks is devoted to advancing the professionalization of the office of Municipal Clerk and improving the administration and efficiency of government. It provides its over 6,300 members with educational, conference, research, reference, and informational services designed to keep them informed on the changes in the urban scene).

Canton Wizard

Video games, diversified menu provide a good time

By SUE BACHAND
Staff Writer

Jim Akhtar is a man who understands the value of the old and the new... and he believes the combination can be very valuable. Akhtar, with his business partner Barbara Baldwin, recently opened

"The Canton Wizard" a restaurant aimed at old-fashioned food service and yet providing the very latest in electronic games for entertainment.

Akhtar will firmly maintain that his establishment is an eatery first and an arcade second—an arcade which only allows children when accompanied by a parent.

More than $150,000 has been invested in the business including the interior decorations which establish the old and new theme. Walls are adorned with old games and signs—to remind parents of their former preoccupations with checkers, chinese checkers and other pastimes of youth. The young people of today can occupy themselves with the video games of the future under the watchful eyes of parents and a full-time guard who is careful that only those of age or with parents enter the small games room.

No loud electronic noise interrupts the soft ragtime music which plays in the dining area, and the restaurant has a special party room used by groups for birthday parties and meetings. Special discount rates are available on the room by contacting the establishment for reservations.

The restaurant now features "Wizmarines"—a submarine type sandwich with a variety of fillings, a pizza quiche, with a unique cheese filling and no bottom crust, along with the soups, salads and other sandwiches on the menu. The real star of the show, however, is the Wizard's pizza, which is one of the most popular items on the menu.

Supervising the food preparation is Natalie Novak, who was formerly charged with the responsibility of food preparation at Cunningham restaurants. She is assisted in serving by youths hired from the Calvary Baptist Church nearby. The night manager is Rick Stratton of the Northville police.

"I'm trying for a good atmosphere, here. This is a good family place. The guys in the leather jackets will not be welcome and we won't have any problems," Akhtar said. He's a man who should know how to create a good atmosphere, having served more than 20 years as a Wayne County Sheriff deputy. He is also in his third year of law studies at the Detroit College of Rita Heath of Canton and her three children can attest to the quality and popularity of the Canton Wizard's pizza and games. Photo by Lothar Konietzko.

Hilton Inn cited

The Hilton Airport Inn in Romulus has been cited by the American Automobile Association for being among the state's finest accommodations. John Plants (right), Automobile Club of Michigan vice president of Corporate Services, presents AAA's four-diamond plaque to Jon Denn, Hilton general manager. Nine Detroit-area hotels earned four diamonds for significantly exceeding requirements in most physical and operation categories. A total of 25 Michigan establishments are four-diamond rated this year but no properties in Michigan earned five diamonds, AAA's highest award.

Summer bike tour set

Experienced long-distance bicyclists from Wayne County can tour southwestern Michigan and northern Indiana this summer in the fourth annual 4-H Coast the Coast bicycle tour.

The tour is scheduled for July 31-August 7. Preliminary plans call for starting the tour in Kalamazoo and then traveling to St. Joseph County, northern Indiana, Cass County, Berrien County and Allegan County before returning to Kalamazoo.

The tentative cost of the tour is $45, which covers lodging, breakfast and dinner.

Law and hopes to take his bar examination in 1984. Now, he is a process server with the sheriff due to the economic cutbacks. He was formerly a senior detective until funding required transfers and layoffs in the department.

"Both of us, Barbara, my partner and I, work full-time, so there's no time for us to babysit any young thugs or kids. We want a good family place where people can enjoy themselves."

Response to the Wizard has been excellent, he said. Most customers are pleased with the menu which is not an accident. Akhtar noted that many hours were spent in developing the type of food that would please both the youngsters and help to develop a lunch crowd among business people in the area.

"Frankly, we looked at Chuck E. Cheese's and decided that it was the right way to go with a few changes to try and adapt it to the type of crowd we wanted," Akhtar said. "Everybody, so far, says the food is excellent," he added.

The Wizard also serves huge cones of Wesley Quaker Maid Ice Cream in a rainbow of flavors, which are also a big attraction in the recent warm weather.

"This is a big gamble but I think it will work," Akhtar said. "If an owner is only interested in making money, and not the atmosphere and good management and control, then it is a risk. We try to be here as much as we can and we have good people who work for us. This is a family oriented place," he concluded.

The Canton Wizard is located at the corner of Ford and Lilley Roads at 4100 Lilley. Hours Mondays through Thursdays are 11 a.m. until 11 p.m., Fridays from 11 a.m. until 1 a.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. until 1 a.m. and Sundays from noon until 10 a.m.

Presently the Wizard is also featuring a free magic show every Tuesday evening for dinner patrons which begins at 8:30 with dinner from 7:30 until showtime. Reservations are suggested for this popular feature. For information, phone 981-3003.

Lead singer disappears

Joe Strummer, the lead singer for the Clash, disappeared without a trace on the eve of the band's British tour. No one, including the other band members, have any idea what happened to the vocalist, although Bernie Rhoades, the group's manager, doesn't think foul play is the issue.

"I think he just took off for a while to think out his future," he says, "and he'll turn up any day now." But that was two weeks ago...

Reports that he's been found recently in France have been denied by Rhoades, although American promoters (such as Detroit's Gail Parenteau) maintain that the Clash U.S. attack will begin later this week. Hopefully they're right, and Joe's OK.

With the Boss, Bruce Springsteen helping out, among others, Donna Summers in the studio, Clarence "The Big Man" Clemons has formed a group on the side, The Red Bank Rockers, and they'll be performing their brand of rhythm & blues at Royal Oak Music Theatre May 31. This is just for fun, he maintains, and his main job is playing sax with Springsteen & The E Street Band.

Joe Jackson has just finished recording his fifth album for A&M Records. Titled "Night and Day", it was recorded in New York at Blue Rock Studios and is the first to prominently feature Joe as instrumentalist on keyboards and saxophone as well as vocals.

All the songs are original—nothing from the Forties!—and the album was co-produced by Joe and David Kershenbaum, who also produced "Look Sharp" and "I'm The Man." The other musicians are bassist Graham Maby, drummer Larry Tolfree and percussionist Sue Hadjopoulos. Two more musicians are still to be added before the tour starts.

"Night And Day" will be released on June 29 and Joe will start his biggest tour ever of the U.S. and Canada at the end of August.

Lady luck still plays a key role in fishing success, studies show

By BOB BREWSTER
Special to Playtime

Fishermen are gamblers at heart. They toss the dice every time they go out, hoping the cubes will turn up their number.

Statistics are usually dull but when it comes to understanding why some fishermen have bad luck, the numbers tell an interesting story. Here are some revealing statistics gathered by fishing experts who are pleased to say that lady luck still plays a big part in fishing success.

All the best available estimates show that there are about 31.5 million acres of warm water in the United States. If you exclude the Great Lakes, this figure comes down to 28.1 million acres.

If this water were divided equally among the 40 million licensed anglers in America, each of us would have seven-tenths of an acre on which to fish. Right away you can begin to see the problem, because not all these 28 million acres are capable of raising fish. Choosing the right acre is like picking a winning horse.

If you still think the odds are in your favor, consider the fact that the average angler makes 21 trips per year to his favorite fishing hole for a grand total of 840 million fishing excursions annually.

That's 29 trips per acre of warm water. If each trip lasts five hours, then each acre of fishing water received 105 hours of pressure.

Don't be discouraged by the numbers. Fishing is like playing poker, only instead of a full house you're after a full stringer, and luck still rules the game.

Club of Year accolade

Junior Study Club receives highest honor at convention

The Belleville Junior Study Club came home recently with the highest honor possible from the 8th Annual Convention of General Federation-Michigan State Federation of Women's Clubs held in Marquette May 13-17—that of "Junior Club of the Year."

Belleville was represented by four members, Cathy Horste, Maxine Lane, Nancy Sawyer and Connie Etter, who competed in all divisions and received the following first place awards: Conservation; Legislation; Program Planning; for best program to educate the community on a local issue; Free Enterprise Division, which included $100 prize which will now go into national club level competition; Communications and Publicity; Crime Reduction; and Girlstown.

They also received a second place award for Education Department and Special Achievement for the Gifted Education.

In addition, all Belleville Junior Study Club projects went into competition on the full state-wide levels with the general clubs (against all 563 Michigan organizations) and won the following first place honors: State Girlstown Service Award; State Overall Family Living and Aging Award; State Overall Shoplifting Projects Award (this, too, will be entered in national competition); State Citizenship award; State Legislation Award and Press Book Competition.

A second place was presented for Overall State Free Enterprise and a fourth for Community Improvement, statewide, which earned the club a $50 cash prize.

Mrs. Sawyer, newly-elected president of the Belleville Club, was honored as "Mrs. Federation" and immediate past-president, Mrs. Horste, received a certificate of appreciation from the National Citizens Crime Prevention Council.

The Federation of Women's Clubs is the largest volunteer organization in the world with over 10,000 members in Michigan alone. The convention is the highlight of each club year when awards are given for the most outstanding club project in each of six major emphasis areas as well as for those in subdivision levels.

Strawberry spice tarts

With Belleville's Annual Strawberry Festival fast approaching, it's time for recipe collectors to start clipping interesting (and delicious-sounding) goodies for their home files.

Along with the bulbs, trees and bushes, strawberry plants will be in bloom in the next few weeks and now's the time to think about some different uses for those plump treats—time to add some spice to the season with these easy-to-prepare Strawberry Spice Tarts.

Simply served, sweetened sliced strawberries adorn these fresh fruit tarts. And they take only minutes to make with thawed frozen whipped topping—no mixers, no baking, not even any chilling—just a stir of the spoon and these tarts are ready for company entertaining. Once more, you can slice and sweeten your berries 30 minutes ahead of time and set them aside to develop that berry special flavor.

Strawberry Spice Tarts

1 cup thawed Birds Eye Cool Whip non-dairy whipped topping

2 tablespoons brown sugar

1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Dash of nutmeg

6 individual commercial pastry shells in aluminum foil cups

Sweetened sliced strawberries

Combine whipped topping, brown sugar and spices. Spoon into shells. Make a depression in center of each and fill with strawberries.

Quotes worth quoting . . .

Jean Paul Richter said it.

Russell-Ellett vows exchanged in Utah

The Skaggs Memorial Chapel in Salt Lake City, Utah, was reserved March 27 for the ceremony which joined Robin Ellett and Richard Russell in holy matrimony. The Hon. Gordon Hall, Chief Justice of the Utah State Supreme Court, presided at the four o'clock rite.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellett of Murray, Utah, the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. For her wedding day she selected a toe-touching ivory lace gown and headpiece of small floral blossoms accented with cascading ribbons at the back. Completing her bridal finery was a bouquet of mauve and ivory-colored roses.

Attending the bride in mauve floral print organza frocks were Valerie Reese, Elizabeth Snow and Angela Ellett. They wore circlets of flowers in their hair and carried baskets to match.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Russell of Belleville, the bridegroom asked James Fielder of Belleville to be best man. Groomsmen were Edgar Scharp and Chris Ellett.

The bride's cousin, Mary Ann Johnson, was vocalist and sang "The Rose" and "There Is Love" prior to and during the wedding.

At the evening reception held at the Hilton Inn of Salt Lake City, the bride's mother received in a pink pleated georgette gown. Mrs. Russell, the bridegroom's mother, chose to wear a pink brocaded satin gown for the occasion.

Among local residents congratulating the young couple were Mrs. Robert Berch and Mr. and Mrs. James Fielder and also the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCracken and son, Eddie, of Henderson, Nev.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii and Mexico, the newlyweds took up residence in Salt Lake City.

Whichello — Hartman to marry July 17

A July 17 altar date has been set by Patricia L. Whichello and James R. Hartman whose engagement and summer wedding plans are announced by Harlan and Pauline Whichello of 3107 Williams Rd., Tampa, Fla., formerly of Belleville.

A graduate of Belleville High School, Adrian College and Eastern Michigan University, Miss Whichello is affiliated with Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and the International Order of Rainbow for Girls, Belleville Assembly #949. She is employed in Tampa by Kelly Services.

The son of Harry and Alice Hartman of 906 E. Brandon Blvd., Brandon, Fla., the future bridegroom graduated from Ford City High School in Pennsylvania and the University of South Florida and is now employed by Manawba, Bahrain.

The Limona Village Chapel, United Methodist Church in Brandon is being reserved for the summer ceremony.

potpourri

By Lee Smith
Suburban Living Editor

When I look at the few precious pieces of furniture—a violin-back piano stool, a sofa table and a padded boudoir bench—and a spattering of accessories—a goldleaf pitcher, hand-painted china plate and similarly adorned china hot chocolate set—which belonged to my grandparents, I could just kick myself!

As a new bride several decades back, my maternal grandmother saw me for what I was—a novice housewife with a little cottage badly in need of furnishings. And, because I didn't want to start out my married life with a "lot of junk," I turned down her overtures and settled into newlyweds' limbo, waiting until we could "afford" a new couch or chair or lamp table. In doing so, I also cut myself out of a neat little heritage by being a little snoot who wasn't going to start with having everyone's hand-me-downs (as my mother did) well into 10 or 12 years of marriage. I wanted NEW stuff!

Oh, to have had the illusive wisdom of foresight. Unfortunately, though, the appreciation of "old things" was not at the almost fanatic point it is now. People today are literally knocking themselves out trying to beat the collectors to the vintage stuff of our forefathers whereas "back then" they were tossing it out.

Having had two of those aforementioned elderly pieces refinished in as many weeks brought this hindsight bit of prose to "potpourri" fruition.

That delicate, spindly violin-back stool with its round swivel seat (which once was wound upward so I could "play" the piano at Grandma's house) is now the piece d' conversation in our family room; and the very seat which fronts on the room divider desk holding this old Royal. For about a year, however, the seat had been in two sections horizontally; the finish had long seen its days of glory; the back was loose to the point of wobbliness and the claw feet were in a sad state of neglect.

A visit to a new friend's home, her pride in a recently revamped teacart and her recommendation of a certain young man who'd done the restoration prompted some speedy action. The S.O.S. for him to re-do my cherished piano stool resulted in an unbelievably beautiful and professional bit of "magic."

Just today he returned with the second piece, that sofa table, which I'm sorry I hadn't let folks see "before" because "after" it is quite amazing—one of the loveliest transformations I've ever seen. From a chipped up, rather ugly gray cast-off, our local young artisan brought forth a beautifully-grained black walnut accessory piece which currently has a place of honor as a server in the dining room.

I can't help but wish I had more of Grandma's heirlooms to undergo face-lifts. However, I do have another challenge for the talented craftsman awaiting his return from a Cape Cod honeymoon—a low washstand chest which (in my "wiser" years) I picked up for a song along the roadside one day. Although it won't have a family story attached or rate as an heirloom, it will bring a bit of the "old way of life" to one of three daughters who just MIGHT have more sense than her mother did "back when."

HELLO TO GEMINI

Gemini, the sign of the twins, made its debut May 21 and will continue to June 20. And if you were delivered during this period, you are nervous, energetic and have a mind like quicksilver. You are charming, verbal, spirited, but sometimes superficial in your assessment of others. You tend to be more deeply connected to your mind than to your body and thrive on mental stimulation. However, often you get so deeply lost in your own logic that you suffer from insomnia and an aggravated case of overthinking.

Your desires tend to take you in two different directions simultaneously and then they change in midstream. In moments of severe stress, your stomach truly takes a beating. You are restless and impatient but like to be challenged verbally.

Children like you because you make them laugh and, basically, people like you because you are enthusiastic, curious and comfortable with all types. But, on the other hand, you can be cold, detached and lacking in compassion.

And that's just the tip of the iceberg! More next week.

Celebrities you're in the company of if your birthday is this week include Rosemary (Come On-a My House) Clooney who was 54 May 23; Barbara Barrie, who was 51, and Joan (Dynasty) Collins, who was 46.

Back in 1914 the stork made a call on May 24 at the Palmer home and left Lilli who's now 68 and in 1941 visited the Dylans and deposited Bob on that same date.

The quartet that could well have sung "Happy Birthday" to each other yesterday, May 25, included Claude Akins, 64; Tom T. Hall, 46; Beverly Sills, 53, and Leslie Uggams, 39.

Today folks are remembering Peggy Lee on the 62nd anniversary of her birth and Robert Morley on the 74th of his.

Louis Gossett will be 46 and Vincent Price 71 on May 27 while Gladys Knight will turn 38 the next day, May 28.

On May 29th BG shares his day with Bob (Thanks for the Memory) Hope who'll be an amazing 79, and Doc Miller, DDS. That's also the birth date of John F. Kennedy, our 35th president, who'd have been 65 years old.

FRESH IDEAS FOR LEMONS

We all have our favorite uses for lemons but the Sunkist people have several more to add to your repertoire.

- Substitute fresh lemon juice for seasonings and dressings if you're watching calories, cholesterol or sodium in your diet.
- Add a squeeze of lemon to colas. Diet cola, especially, tastes better with the addition.
- Use a lemon wedge in chilled bottled water to add zest.
- Lemon butter: combine 1 tablespoon chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel and 1 tablespoon lemon juice with 1/2 cup melted butter. Pour over cooked vegetables for a brighter taste.
- Freeze strips of lemon peel in ice cubes for unique cold beverages.
- Add a few lemon slices or wedges to prepared lemonade for a fresh taste and look.
- Rub the edge of a cocktail glass with lemon peel for tastier drinks.

ITEMS FOR TRIVIA BUFFS

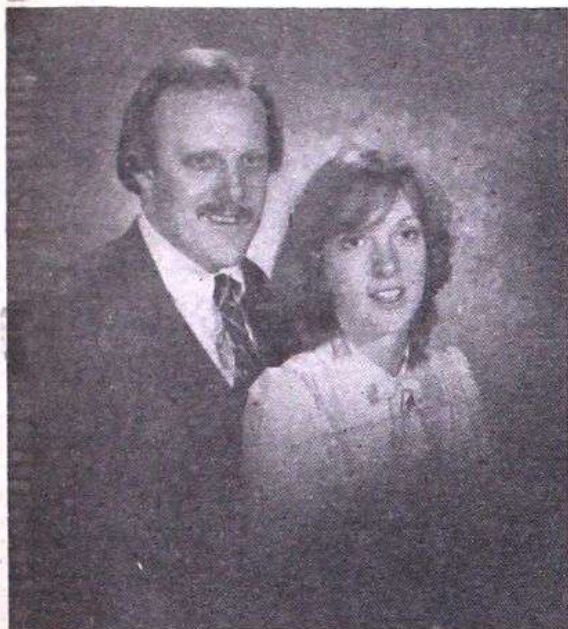

- Andrew Johnson, the only U. S. president to undergo impeachment proceedings (he was acquitted by one vote), was also the first ex-president to serve later in the Senate.
- The International Ladies Garment Workers Union was founded in 1900 in New York to fight the 70-hour work week and a 30-cents-a-day pay scale for women sewing at home.
- The real title of Whistler's portrait of his mother is "Arrangement in Gray and Black."

THE BOTTOM LINE: All too often a clear conscience is merely the result of a bad memory.

New on the scene

Jessica Lynn McDonald

The birth of an 8 lb.-5 1/2 oz. baby girl is announced by Raymond and Connie McDonald of 19735 Crandell Ct., Belleville. Arriving at 7:38 p.m. April 27 at Women's Hospital in Ann Arbor, the 20 1/4 inch newcomer was named Jessica Lynn.

She is the new step-sister of Michael and Steven McDonald who are 12 and 10 years of age, respectively. Her grandparents are Nick and Pauline Lewis of Belleville.

The new mother is the former Connie Lewis.

Amanda Rae Brasseur

"Amanda Rae" is the title chosen for the third daughter born May 5 to Paul and Joy Brasseur of 7622 Hamilton, Belleville. The 10 lb.-2 oz. infant, who measured 22 inches, put in her appearance at 3:23 p.m. at Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti.

Looking in on their new baby sister these mid-spring days are Aimee Joy, who's four, and Kimberly Ann, two and a half.

The girls are the granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Brasseur of Palatine, Ill. and Mrs. Ruth Elhart of Holland, Mi. and the great-granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dye of Traverse City.

Their mother is the former Joy Elhart.

Melissa Christine Sykes

A touch of pink has been added to the Belleville home of James and Cathy Sykes at 230 Henry Street — a new baby daughter. Making her debut at 2:28 a.m. May 4 at Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti, Melissa Christine weighed 6 lbs.-15 ozs. and measured 20 inches.

The new sister of James Francis Sykes, who's one and a half, she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Armatis and Mr. and Mrs. James Sykes, all of Belleville.

The proud great-grandparents include Francis Armatis of Belleville; Mrs. Laura Cram of Warren and Mrs. Leah (Sissy) Sykes of Belleville.

Melissa's mother is the former Cathy Armatis.

Adam Joseph Wiedmer

An eight pound-10 oz. baby boy is the new addition to the Joseph M. Wiedmer family of 46069 Reed St., Belleville. The new heir, who joins a 20-months-old sister, Cheyenne Nora, put in his appearance at 6:55 a.m. May 18 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Given the title "Adam Joseph," the baby who measured 20 inches, is the grandson of Chester and Rose Combs of Wyandotte and Freda Wiedmer of Romulus.

His mother is the former Rosetta Combs.

Andrew Robert McCracken

The arrival of their second son, Andrew Robert, is announced by Edward and Mary (Russell) McCracken of Henderson, Nev. The new addition to the family bowed in April 22 at Rose de Lima Hospital in Henderson and weighed 6 lbs.-9 ozs.

The future playmate of Edward McCracken II, better known as "Eddie," the newcomer is the grandson of Bob and Margaret Russell of Belleville and the Edward McCrackens of Farmington.

Mrs. Russell flew to Nevada and spent three weeks helping to care for the boys. Her husband joined her for the last leg of her stay.

It's Wayne vs. Glenn for playoff berth

Zebras are 'underdogs' in playoff series

Wayne would like to even up its baseball series with archrival Westland John Glenn when the two baseball clubs meet at 4 p.m. on Friday at Wayne in the qualifying round of the Class A District baseball tournament.

Coach Jim Chronowski's Zebras have managed to win only one of three games from Norm Hoene's Rockets this year, and the Westlanders will have a definite edge over their natural rivals in their fourth confrontation.

"I would say we're the underdogs," Chronowski offered. "They have beaten us pretty soundly this year. But, again, who can tell—the team that gets the breaks in the tournaments usually comes out ahead."

Wayne appears ready for the tournament as the Zebras swept two games from an always tough Dearborn Fordson last week. They edged the Tractors 10-8 in the opener and won the nightcap in the last inning 10-6 with a four-run surge.

"I can't say much about our pitching in this (Fordson) series," Chronowski said, "but the kids got a hold of the ball. They collected 29 hits in 14 innings and that's not bad."

Richard Browe belted a two-run homer with Phil Kaske aboard and wound up with a run-scoring triple and scoring three times in the opener. Kaske also figured in on four runs as he scored after walking three times and collecting a single, while teammate Lloyd Phipps went three for four with a triple and a pair of singles including 2 RBIs for the winners.

Eric Schultz, getting some relief help from Jerry Perusse, was the winner. Perusse took over from the run. A single by Korte scored the second run, then Perusse walked, putting runners on first and third. Pete Foley lofted a sacrifice fly and Don Vojtkofsky also singled, driving in what proved to be the final two runs of the ball game.

Blazer finished up with a perfect 4-for-4, including two runs scored and Browe had 5 for 8 for the day and 3-for-4 for the evening. Vojtkofsky singled and doubled.

Earlier in the week, Wayne's Phipps ended a pitcher's duel with a 375-foot blast that gave the Zebras and Perusse a 1-0 victory over run. A single by Korte scored the second run, then Perusse walked, putting runners on first and third. Pete Foley lofted a sacrifice fly and Don Vojtkofsky also singled, driving in what proved to be the final two runs of the ball game.

Blazer finished up with a perfect 4-for-4, including two runs scored and Browe had 5 for 8 for the day and 3-for-4 for the evening. Vojtkofsky singled and doubled.

Earlier in the week, Wayne's Phipps ended a pitcher's duel with a 375-foot blast that gave the Zebras and Perusse a 1-0 victory over Wyandotte. Phipps' HR ruined the Shaun McCabe's excellent pitching performance. The Bruin hurler had allowed only two Wayne runners to reach base and had a no-hitter until that fatal seventh frame.

Perusse fanned five, walked one, while McCabe notched six strikeouts and walked one.

Phipps twirled a 2-hitter as he blanked Taylor Center 5-0 en route to his third victory in four starts. He whiffed five and walked five while the Zebras got him two runs in the third and sixth and one run in the fourth.

Spartans end title drought in baseball

More than a decade of frustration ended for Cherry Hill as the Spartans captured a share of the Tri-River Conference baseball crown. It was the first time that a Cherry Hill ball club had a piece of the coveted title since 1965 when Coach Jim Dollaway's club owned the championship.

"We're indeed proud of this team," said Cherry Hill coach Ken Mientkiewicz who has waited six years for the championship. "It's very gratifying to win."

Cherry Hill needed a victory Monday over Taylor Kennedy to claim it all, however, the Spartans dropped a thriller 4-3 thereby ending in a two-way tie for the championship with Garden City West.

Until the Kennedy confrontation, Cherry Hill had possessed string of eight consecutive conference victories. Their only previous loss was to West earlier in the campaign.

Last week the Spartans buried Dearborn Heights Riverside 17-5, edged Melvindale 3-2, took a

Cherry Hill's best team since 1965

11-2 victory from Lutheran West and won a pre-district qualifying round from Dearborn Divine Child 3-1.

They'll take an over-all 15-6 record up against Crestwood Friday at 4 p.m. in a game that will determine who'll compete in the Class B District Tournament scheduled at Detroit Northern.

Against Divine Child, senior righthander Tom Michno scattered four hits, struck out 10 and walked three to earn the victory. He helped his own cause with a run-scoring double.

The Spartans got on the scoreboard in the first inning when Andy Armbruster tripled to left center off of loser Tom Agency. Ambruster scored when Tom Pietruszka singled.

However, the Falcons managed to tie it up in the sixth, but the knot didn't last long as Rom Peterson drilled a single with one-away in the bottom of the sixth. Michno then doubled and Pietruszka hammered a two-run double which stood up as the winning margin.

Cherry Hill's junior lefthander Ron Kadoguchi gave up six hits, fanned six and walked an equal number to post the triumph over Lutheran West. A two-run homer by Ambruster, who went two for three, lifted the Spartans into the lead for good in the third inning. Ken Farmer and Andy Lapensee each had two hits for the winners.

Extra inning thriller

Belleville ousts Romulus in district qualifier, 1-0

It's an adage, but it's true — you can toss out the records when rivals meet.

And when an 8-14 Romulus team ran up against Belleville last week in a pre-district baseball test, Romulus fought into extra innings before falling to Coach Tom Filder's Tigers 1-0.

"It was an excellent game," Romulus coach Dennis Stoh said. "We threatened a couple of times, but unfortunately didn't cash in on our opportunities."

One of those excellent chances to get on the scoreboard was in the fourth inning when winning pitcher Larry Petrowski gave up his only hit — an infield single to Rich Dybicki after he retired to Romulus batters.

Then, Todd Wallace worked Petrowski for a base on balls and when Bill Coaltrain was safe on an error, Petrowski was in trouble. Looking at a bases-loaded situation, Coach Fielder decided to stay with his lefty who got Rob Whaling to ground out for the final out.

Petrowski cahlked up 14 strikeouts and walked only two in earning the eight-inning pitcher's duel. He ended senior righthander Todd Wallace's prep career who also pitched well enough to win. Wallace fanned six, walked two, and yielded six hits.

What proved to be Wallace's undoing was a walk to Jim Daniels in the eighth. Daniels scored when Ron Rich connected for a two-bagger, scoring the winning run and advancing the Tigers into the Class A District Playoffs scheduled Saturday at Brighton.

Fikes qualifies for state

While both Romulus and Belleville boys' track & field teams were shut out at the Class A Regionals on Saturday, Romulus did manage to qualify one girl athlete for the state finals.

Simone Fikes earned a berth at the state finals when she finished second in the shot put at the regionals held at Wyandotte Roosevelt High School.

Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles placed third in the high hurdles with Troy Gray while John Hollifield crossed the finish line sixth. The top two finishers in each of the individual events or those showing state qualifying times were eligible to compete in the state finals.

Belleville's Dave Medley said that most of his athletes posted their best times of the season.

Golf tourney, anyone?

The Golfer's Unlimited Golf Club is hosting its inaugural "Pit" Open Amateur Golf Tournament at Green Oaks Golf Course located at 1775 Clark Rd., Ypsilanti on Saturday, May 29.

There will be flights for men, women and juniors. The entry fee of $25 for adults and $10 for juniors includes trophies, prizes, a buffet dinner and dance at the Flaming Pit Restaurant located at 3750 Washenaw (Holiday Inn East), Ann Arbor. Entry blanks can be obtained at most of the public Golf Courses in the area.

As a result of Golfer's Unlimited's commitment to the betterment of the community, all proceeds from this tournament will be used to send as many "kids" as possible (who normally would not have the opportunity) to summer camps.

Dolphins seek swimmers

Head wins Olympic medals

In the recent 1982 Michigan Junior Olympic Boys Swimming Championships sponsored by McDonalds, Keith Head of the Wayne Recreation Dolphins swam two events and placed in the top twelve in each.

On Saturday he swam the 200-yard breaststroke and placed eighth in the prelims in the morning. When he swam in the finals that evening he brought his time down to and brought his final place down to seventh.

On Sunday in the prelims he swam the 100-yard breaststroke and placed 6th breaking his entry time. That evening he brought his final time down to a 1:07:51 placing him 3rd in the state in the 13 & 14 year old category.

The following day was the league championship for the Dolphins and when Keith swam the 100-yard breaststroke he again broke his time bringing it down to a 1:06:09. Since he is in the bottom of his age group this year he will be able to try for the coveted gold medal in this event next year.

Anyone wishing to join the Dolphins swim program this summer, please be at Wayne Memorial High School pool at 4 p.m. on June 8. This is the official try-out date. Bring swim suit and a towel, and be ready to show the coaches your strokes.

The summer session will begin on June 21. The first Monday of Summer vacation. Registrations start June 7 at the Wayne Recreation Center.

A Parents' Booster meeting will be held in June. The date will be announced at a later date.

The Jim McPartlin Scholarship this year was awarded to Dolphins' Michelle Matheny, Dennis Higgs and Randy Ferguson.

Area bowlers are honored

The Wayne-Westland Bowling Association's annual dinner dance was highlighted by the presentation of awards to area bowlers for their outstanding achievements during the 1981-1982 season.

Trophies for their 300 games (a performance of perfection) were received by Glen A. Crafton, James Darmofal, Tim Gray, Bob Grenier, Mark Hall, Dave Kaliszewski, Mike Kane, Paul Koski, Steve Londeau, Allan Manser, Gil Reppenhausen, and Oz Sutton.

Also receiving awards were Dan Jacobs, Steve Hubble, and Larry

Williams for their noteworthy 299 games, as well as, Mike Harris and John Hurley for games of 298 each.

High 3 game honors for the season went to Steve Londeau for his big series at Super Bowl; Dave Kaliszewski and Mike Lee recording 801 each at Westland Bowl; Conrad Krzyzanoski, 751 at Fiesta Lanes; Rick Lang, 715 at Town & Country; and Richard Green with a 700 for Wayne Bowl.

"Bowler of the Month" plaques were received by Kevin Gabler, Kenneth Riddle, Ted Fournier Jr., Oz Sutton, John Selinski, and James Towler for outscoring all association bowlers on an over-average basis for a single game. Frank Ashcraft maintained an impressive 216 average for the season to walk away with the honor in that category.

Sharing in the spotlight with bowlers receiving recognition for regular league competition scores were the winners of the mixed doubles and mens tournaments.

Top honors in the mixed doubles contest went to Mary Hansen and Robert Sedlak with a total of 1409 including handicap.

The men's tourney finished its run with some of the most impressive scoring seen in recent years with Terry Patterson's Five not only dominating the team event with Randall Gray contributing 582; Dan Wilson, 634; Al Gilreath, 708; Terry Patterson, 593; and Bob Allen, 548 plus handicap for 3572; but individual team members won top spots in the other events as well.

Dan Wilson's 629 and Al Gilreath's 713 plus handicap resulted in an insurmountable doubles event total of 1573.

Dan Wilson topped the singles event field and had the high 3 game score of the tournament with an actual 716 series plus handicap for an 809 total and teammate, Al Gilreath, coupled series of 713, 708 and 579 plus handicap for 2414 to capture the all events crown for this year.

Steve Stevens had a high actual game of 270 to round out the top scoring spots and established lofty targets for next year's contestants.

Belleville softballers meet Adrian in district qualifier

Belleville High's girls' softball team gets its first — and could be its last — taste of Class A District Tournament on Friday when the local softballers take on an improving Adrian ball club at 4 p.m. in Adrian.

"They're a good solid team that recently knocked off an excellent Ann Arbor squad," said Belleville coach Peggy Curtis. "If we can get some hitting to go along with our pitching, then we have a chance."

"But, lately, our hitting isn't anything to brag about," she added.

Belleville took a 12-8 over-all and a 7-3 Suburban 8 Conference record into the final week of regular competition. Rained out on Saturday, the Tigers got a two-hit pitching performance from their ace, Judy Wisniewski, in a 9-1 victory over conference rival, Dearborn earlier in the week.

Wisniewski, who sports a 11-5 over-all record, twirled a nine-hitter in an 8-6 come-from-behind triumph over Dearborn Edsel Ford.

The Tigers scored four times against Dearborn in the first inning as Jill Pence led off with a bunt that resulted in an error, then stole second and advanced to third with Kim Thick's bunt single. Michelle LaMance singled in the two runners and she advanced to second on a passed ball.

LaMance scored when the Pioneers' infield mishandled Virgette Stoltz' grounder and a fielder's choice eventually scored the fourth run in the inning. The Tigers put the game on ice with another 4-run surge in the third as leadoff hitter Stoltz singled, advanced to second when Sandy Mattson walked. A passed ball and Debbie Summer's base hit produced a run.

Pence then singled, driving home the second run and Thick rapped a triple, sending home two more runs and giving the Tigers an insurmountable 9-0 lead.

Belleville came up with four runs in the bottom of the 10th to send Dearborn Edsel Ford home with a loss. Wisniewski struck out five and walked two in gaining the victory.

In the 10th, Shearer led off with a single, LaMance then sacrificed and Stoltz walked, putting runners on first and third. The T-Bird decided to give Debbie Stull an intentional pass and successive singles by Wisniewski, Summer, Jim Pence and a walk to Ann Plaza that forced in a run ended the 10-inning marathon.

Belleville has four games on tap this week. They had a pair of make-ups, starting Tuesday at Salem; Wednesday at Bedford and Thursday at Trenton. The winner of the Adrian-Belleville pre-district game on Friday will advance to the district tournament scheduled Saturday at 12:30 p.m. at Plymouth Canton.

Spartans own baseball crown

(Continued from Page C-3) a key 3-2 victory over Melvindale's Cardinals who rallied for one run in the seventh and nearly forced the issue to extra innings before Michno squelched the rally by getting the third out in the last inning.

Cherry Hill scored three times in the first inning off of loser

Doug Brown who gave up a single to left to Pietruszka and a base hit to Peterson which set the stage for Michno's fifth homer of the season — a blast that cleared the Spartans' center field fence.

Ambruster, Tim McCollum and Darryl Smarsh each chipped in two hits to help Kadoguchi rout the Riverside Rebels 17-5.

Flat Rock to host 'Grand Prix'

Flat Rock Speedway (as well as the streets of Detroit) will resound with the roar of open-wheel racing competition during Michigan's Grand Prix weekend of June 5-6.

Saturday night, June 5, Flat Rock Speedway will host the Michigan Short Track

Grand Prix, featuring the initial 1982 appearance of the International Competitive Auto Racing (ICAR) Supermodified/Sprints in the state of Michigan.

The ICAR drivers will do battle in a dash, heats, consolation, and a 50 lap feature event. The ARCA Late Models and Street Stocks will also run their regular full slate of events, and the Figure 8 division will compete in a feature event only.

The open-wheel ICAR machines are the quickest type of racing Flat Rock

Speedway fans will witness this season. To highlight the Flat Rock Grand Prix event, numerous media personalities and area celebrities will climb behind the wheel and strap themselves in stock cars for a celebrity race.

Time trials are slated for 6:15 and racing begins at 8:00 p.m. Flat Rock Speedway is located 1 mile south of Flat Rock on Telegraph Road (U.S. 24).

'Orange Streak' falls to Dearborn in Van Buren soccer game debut

Van Buren Township's 10-and-11 year old girl's soccer team, The Orange Streak, dropped a 2-3 decision to Dearborn's Prima Donnas on Saturday.

The Prima Donnas moved quickly in Saturday's game, scoring three goals in the first quarter. However, they had to work hard to maintain their lead, as The Orange Streak persistently struggled to dominate the game. Energetic and quick dives on the ball by Van Buren's goalie, Christy Sikes, often prevented Dearborn from scoring again.

The Orange Streak's first break came in the third quarter when referee, Eric Hallstrom, penalized Dearborn for tripping. In a resulting one-to-one kick on the goalie, forward Karen Fujui scored a goal for Van Buren.

Van Buren scored again in the fourth quarter when a high corner kick by their player bounced off a goalie had fumbled and lost the ball, so it was legal for Van Buren to continue to play the ball. Another player kept Van Buren from scoring then by kicking the ball out of bounds.

Van Buren's coach, Cheryl Hunley, was not discouraged by their defeat. "The girls did a good job," Ms. Hunley said. "This is the first year Van Buren has had a girl's team, and we have nine girls on our team who have never even played soccer before. This team (The Prima Donnas) has only been scored on once before, and we scored on them today."

Assistant coach, Nancy Beatty, added, "We're going to be first in our division."

The Orange Streak's record is 2-1-1 on the season.

Anatuk to Hope

Westland John Glenn will have a griddier in Hope College's football line-up this fall when All-Area tackle Craig Anatuk checks in for practice.

Anatuk is a 6-0, 200-pound griddier who should help Ray Smith's defending Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association football champs in the years ahead.

"This is the first time we have had a Glenn griddier play for Hope," said Chuck Gordon, head football coach at Glenn. "I know Craig will be an asset to them."

TIPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL GARAGE SALE

There is a lot more to a really successful Garage Sale than you might think, but doing it right is simply a matter of organization and attention to certain important details.

To give you the ingredients of a successful sale, here are a few timely tips:

1. WHAT TO SELL
Simply stated, anything that still has usability and some value is a good Garage Sale item. So first you must go through the storage areas of your basement, attic or garage and determine what has sales potential. Make a list as you go. You should find such things as garden tools, old furniture, good clothing, toys, musical instruments, sewing machines and the like. You may be surprised at how many articles you will have.

2. ADVERTISING
Obviously the best way to advertise your sale is in the Classified Advertising section of your newspaper. These ads are read avidly by people looking for bargains. You can keep your ad fairly short and still effective by listing the most appealing items separately and then lumping others in categories, such as furniture, clothes, toys, antiques, etc.

3. PRICING
Everything must be priced to save both you and the customer valuable time. Start by listing all items by category on an inventory sheet. Antiques, for example, should be listed separately from other items. Clothing should be priced at approximately one-eighth the original cost. Any clothing 10 to 15 years old may have nostalgic appeal and can be priced slightly higher. It might even be placed in the antiques category. Electrical appliances that work should bring one-fourth the original cost. Most prices on most articles will be influenced by condition of the items. A good-looking item can carry a good price. If you are involved in a double sale, which we will discuss next, be sure to color code your own prices.

4. DOUBLE SALE
Many people have found it worthwhile to combine their Garage Sale with that of a friend or neighbor. This saves money on costs of advertising and provides a helping hand in arranging items, pricing them, dealing with customers, besides providing welcome companionship. Don't forget to keep separate inventories and different price color coding. Another important advantage is a more impressive array of merchandise.

5. LENGTH OF THE SALE
Most productive sales are those that run at least three days. Since tests show that Thursday is the best day to advertise, the logical start of a sale would be Friday. This gives you the entire weekend in which to conduct your business. After a day or two the word will get around and supplement your advertising efforts. After the most attractive items are gone, you may wish to reconsider and change prices on those articles which have been slow to move.

One-day sales may be profitable for the experienced Garage Sale promoters but on the beginner's case many things can go wrong such as a rainy day, and you may have to advertise all over again.

6. SETTING UP YOUR SALE
The few days before your sale, naturally, will be concerned with selection and pricing, but there are some other important preliminary steps. You will need change, so get to the bank and get plenty of small bills and various size coins. Set up a headquarters table conveniently located for your customers and from where you can supervise the operation. Here you will keep your change, your adding machine, your inventory lists. Always have someone in attendance. You also may want to install a hat and coat rack and a mirror for the use of those who may want to try on garments. Arrange sale items in neat rows and allow plenty of walking room between displays.

7. DON'T HESITATE TO ASK FOR ADVICE
Your Classified Advertising department is always ready to advise you on your Garage Sale. When you advertise it, ask for help from one of our Ad-Visors so that your message will have maximum impact. And good luck!
